

To whom it may concern,

I have been working with Tom Smith for a period of 3 years. Tom launched Air Ground Logistics, Inc. in 2010, realizing the need for quality service and customer commitment in an ever growing market. Air Ground Logistics provides Air Freight and Expedited ground service for FUJI FILM domestically within the United States.

FUJI FILM is a globally recognized corporation with offices worldwide.

Tom has always provided us with premier customer service, and competitive rates throughout our business relationship. The quality of service Air Ground provides only continues to get better as they strive to meet the requirements of FUJI FILM.

I have dealt with many similar companies in the past, but we have not experienced the level of professionalism we have come to expect from Tom and his team at Air Ground Logistics.

There have been numerous times that we have been under immense pressure to make something happen, and Air Ground has always gone the extra mile to make the seemingly impossible happen.

I, along with my staff have complete faith in the company, and experienced sales department at Air Ground.

If you would like any more information, please feel free to contact me directly.

Sincerely,
